Appeased Wrath of Offended Indian Spirits That Sins May Be Forgiven

(By Associated Press)
SANTA ROSA, CALIF., June 21.—To appease the wrath of offended Indian spirits, Manuel Cordova, a young brave of the Geyersville reservation, near here, recently spent all one night dancing the war dance of his tribe, according to reports received here.

There is a tradition among the Geyersville Indians that holds that the spirits of the redmen will be offended if the braves dance their war dance before strangers. Cordova violated this law early last month when he led a dance of Geyersville Indian school children at Cotati near here before about 20,000 spectators. Only by dancing all night and providing a feast for his fellows could the Indian return to the favor of the gods.

Although few of the spectators heard of it, Cordova immediately after the dance, hurried back to Geyersville, tribesmen reported and immediately started his all night dance. Warriors and squaws of the tribe sat around throughout the night watching Cordova and at dawn sat down to a feast at which he was host.

Manuel's brother participated with him in his all night penance and the Indian children of the Geyersville school danced for several hours.
